XI. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

MAA denies any and all allegations contained in Plaintiffs' Prayer for Relief, denies that Plaintiffs are entitled to any relief whatsoever, and requests that Plaintiffs take nothing in this suit and that this matter be dismissed with prejudice, with costs and fees awarded to MAA.

XII. JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

MAA admits that Plaintiffs demand a trial by jury for all of the issues pled that are so triable. However, such a trial is unnecessary as Plaintiffs' claims should be dismissed as a matter of law. In addition, MAA denies that Plaintiffs are entitled to a trial by jury to the extent a contractual agreement to arbitrate, to waive a jury trial, or to waive a class action entered into by Plaintiffs or any purported class member precludes such trial by jury.

DEFENSES

MAA asserts the following defenses in response to Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims, undertaking the burden of proof only as to those defenses deemed affirmative defenses by law, regardless of how such defenses are denominated herein. MAA incorporates by reference the admissions, allegations, and denials contained in its Answer, and reserves the right to amend this Answer and to assert other defenses as this action proceeds.¹

FIRST DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiffs' Second Amended Consolidated Class Action Complaint fails to state facts upon which relief can be granted.

SECOND DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statute of limitations. To the extent Plaintiffs and putative class members seek to bring claims outside any applicable statute of limitations, Plaintiffs' Complaint is time-barred. To the extent that Plaintiffs' Complaint relies on information made public more than four years ago, Plaintiff's Complaint is time-barred.

THIRD DEFENSE

¹ To the extent the Court's rulings have limited or foreclosed any of these defenses, MAA continues to plead the defense to preserve it for appeal.

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs and putative class members have not suffered any injury in fact or any injury cognizable under the antitrust laws. Plaintiffs' and putative class members' alleged harm lies in their speculation that many companies colluded through a conspiracy, resulting in their harm. In essence, Plaintiffs and putative class members complain about the impact of naturally unpredictable changes in the market conditions that exist in the global, national, and local economy. To the extent that Plaintiffs and putative class members' maintain that they were injured by these events, such an injury is not cognizable under the antitrust laws.

FOURTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs failed to exercise reasonable care to mitigate any damages they may have suffered. To the extent Plaintiffs and putative class members allege they paid prices above competitive levels, Plaintiffs and putative class members had an obligation to mitigate their damages by seeking other sources of supply, including from other property managers or owners. Plaintiffs' and putative class members' failure to exercise reasonable care to mitigate damages was the complete or partial cause of any damages Plaintiffs and putative class members may have suffered.

FIFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, because any alleged injuries and damages either were not legally or proximately caused by any acts or omissions of MAA or were caused, if at all, solely and proximately by Plaintiffs' and putative class members' conduct or by the conduct of third parties including, without limitation, the prior, intervening, or superseding conduct of Plaintiffs, putative class members, or such third parties.

SIXTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrine of waiver. Plaintiffs' and putative class members' continued rental leases at what they now allege are prices above the competitive level manifest an intention to waive any right to bring this suit and are inconsistent with any other intention. Plaintiffs and putative class members, by their actions, accepted the benefits of an ongoing relationship with Defendants and relinquished their rights to bring suit.

SEVENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred by the equitable doctrine of laches. Plaintiffs and putative class members demonstrated an unreasonable lack of diligence in bringing their claims. Plaintiffs' and putative class members' unreasonable lack of diligence in bringing their claims now bars them.

EIGHTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, due to their ratification of, and consent to, Defendants' conduct. Plaintiffs' Complaint demonstrates its long-standing ratification of and consent to the complained-of conduct. Accordingly, because Plaintiffs and putative class members have been aware for years of the very same conduct they now challenge—and because some of that conduct provided Plaintiffs and putative class members a direct benefit—Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred by the doctrine of ratification.

NINTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent Plaintiffs and putative class members entered into a contract that requires arbitration of the claims at issue, requires suit in a different forum, precludes a jury trial, or precludes a class or other representative proceeding.

TENTH DEFENSE

Without admitting the existence of any contract, combination, or conspiracy in restraint of trade, and expressly denying same, Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by non-settling Defendants' right to set off any amounts paid to Plaintiffs and putative class members by any Defendants who have settled, or do settle, Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims against them in this action.

ELEVENTH DEFENSE

Without admitting the existence of any contract, combination, or conspiracy in restraint of trade, and expressly denying same, Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent that Plaintiffs and putative class members entered into contracts that do not include any purported overcharge.

TWELFTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent they seek improper multiple damage awards, and damage awards duplicative of those sought in other actions, in violation of the Due Process guarantees of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution and of the Eighth Amendment of the United States Constitution.

THIRTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the Plaintiffs' and putative class members' knowing acquiescence to the restraints of trade alleged in the Complaint.

FOURTEENTH DEFENSE

Upon information and belief, Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by Defendants' right to set off any amount paid to Plaintiffs and putative class members by damages attributable to Plaintiffs' and putative class members' conduct to the extent Plaintiffs and putative class members unlawfully shared information found to be competitively sensitive regarding their rental lease agreements or potential alternative rental lease agreements.

FIFTEENTH DEFENSE

Some or all of Plaintiffs' and putative class members' state-law claims cannot be brought against MAA for a lack of jurisdiction. For instance, the laws of the states cited in Count II of the Complaint are not intended to, and do not, apply to conduct occurring outside of those states, and Plaintiffs' Complaint does not include any Plaintiff from the States of Alaska, Arizona, District of Columbia, Hawaii, Idaho, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia, Wisconsin, or Wyoming.

Many of the state laws allegedly giving rise to Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims do not apply because the alleged conduct did not occur within or substantially affect the citizens or commerce of the respective states, or because MAA had no specific intent to impact the commerce of those states. As a result, the application of those state laws to MAA's conduct would violate the Due Process Clauses and Commerce Clause of the U.S. Constitution, the principle of federalism, and the constitutions and laws of the respective states at issue.

To the extent that the Complaint seeks to assert claims or obtain relief on behalf of multifamily renters located outside of the jurisdictions governed by those laws, those claims are barred as improper assertions of extraterritorial jurisdiction and any effort to enforce those laws as to residents of other states would violate the Due Process Clause and the Commerce Clause of the U.S. Constitution and various state laws and constitutions.

SIXTEENTH DEFENSE

Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred due to lack of subject matter jurisdiction as to MSAs in which no named Plaintiff suffered any injury because no named Plaintiff rented a residential multifamily rental unit in that MSA.

SEVENTEENTH DEFENSE.

Some of Plaintiffs' and putative class members' state-law claims are barred, in whole or in part, to the extent Plaintiffs and putative class members seek damages under state laws that do not permit recovery of damages by private plaintiffs, including, without limitations, any claims brought under the laws of Georgia or Pennsylvania.

EIGHTEENTH DEFENSE

To the extent that the rate paid for a multifamily residential rental unit by any Plaintiff or putative class member was subject to or influenced by rates filed with any applicable federal, state, or local regulator, whether under rent-control laws or otherwise, Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred by the immunities and exemptions conferred by the filed rate doctrine

NINETEENTH DEFENSE

Some or all of Plaintiffs' and putative class members' claims are barred because all of MAA's conduct challenged by Plaintiffs and putative class members was lawful, fair, non-deceptive, expressly authorized by law, justified, and pro-competitive; it constituted a bona fide business practice consistent with industry practices and was carried out in furtherance of legitimate business interests; and it was an essential part of MAA's lawful business operations.

TWENTIETH DEFENSE

MAA adopts and incorporates by reference any and all other defenses asserted by any other Defendant to the extent that the defense would apply to MAA.

TWENTY-FIRST DEFENSE

MAA reserves the right to assert other defenses as this action proceeds up to and including the time of trial.

WHEREFORE, having answered the Complaint, MAA prays that:

1. The Complaint be dismissed with prejudice;
 2. Plaintiffs be responsible for all costs of this action, including discretionary costs;
- and
3. MAA have such other and further relief to which it may prove entitled.
